A WORD FROM THE PRESIDENT OF EDUCATION

Being the President of Education has hands down been one of the best experiences of my life.

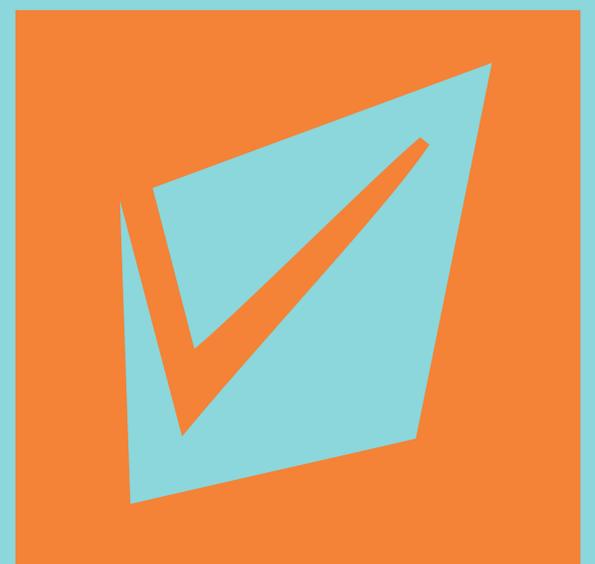

This job is so unique, opens so many doors, and I have gained so many skills such as communication, teamwork, management, and negotiation skills which will help after I leave the Students' Union.

More importantly you actually get to make a difference to people's lives, work with some incredible full-time staff, and live in a great city for another year (or two if you get re-elected). No two days are the same (trust me, I'll happily show you my calendar – it's a colour-coded mess!) and you get to be involved in some really exciting projects such as the development of the London campus, working on the academic boards, working with placements & careers, and running SU-specific campaigns.

People often joke that the Education Pres role is 'boring', 'hard work', 'no fun' and 'a lot of meetings'. I won't lie, there are a cr*pload of meetings and you need to know your stuff but if you're passionate about social justice and want everyone to be able to access worthwhile and exciting educational experiences, then this role is perfect for you!

Out of all the President roles, you'll be the resident nerd (but that's not a bad thing!) and you'll have so much fun!

Even if you have the slightest inclination to run for a position DO IT!
It was the best thing I ever did!
