

YORK ST JOHN STUDENTS' UNION

ROLE RESPONSIBILITIES

Job title: PRESIDENT OF WELLBEING AND DIVERSITY

Salary Scale: £17,509 pa

Hours of work: 35hrs PW (Flexibility will be required, occasional weekend work – open days, arrivals weekend)

The Role

YSJSU is led by three elected full-time officers and nine part-time officers, who share responsibility for the organisation: President of the Students' Union, President of Education, President of Wellbeing and Diversity and the Chairs of School. Each year, students stand for election to one of these positions. Those who are successfully elected by their fellow students serve full-time in their role for a one year period, taking a break from their studies or after completing their studies to do so. Officers receive a full salary during their time of office. The Officers have responsibility for ensuring students views are effectively represented within YSJSU and the University.

Benefits

Being elected as an YSJSU Officer is a unique opportunity to develop key leadership and negotiation skills as head of a large organisation, acting to deliver positive impact on the experience of more than 6500 student members. It is also a fully paid position, which means that Officers can concentrate on their priorities without worrying about the need to support them financially. In addition you will receive 26 days of holidays, 8 bank holidays and 5 University closure days. We also offer you a comprehensive training package, access to a number of development courses and various staff benefits including a free NUS card and railcard.
